Clinton D. Topham, a longtime employee of the Utah Department of Transportation, has been named interim executive director of the agency.

He replaces W. Craig Zwick, who resigned to become a member of the First Quorum of the Seventy in the LDS Church. Topham, who joined UDOT in 1970, had been Zwick's chief deputy since April 1994. He worked previously as director of planning at UDOT and has served in UDOT engineering posts as well.

A native of Paragonah, Iron County, Topham, 46, is a registered professional engineer and has a bachelor's in civil engineering from Utah State University.
